Montana's Election Muddle is Getting Serious.

Jeff Davis Very III-His Family Sum moned to His Bedside. Fifteen Men Patally Injured in a Col liery Disaster. Colorado Silver Men Lay Out Their Programme for a Vigorous Campaign at the Meeting of Congress. By Telegraph to The Times.

HELENA (Mont.). Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] The election muddle in Silver Bow county is growing worse daily. On Tuesday Judge de Wolf returned, retired from office and McHatton (Dem.). who is elected by counting the Tunnel pre who is elected by counting the Tunnel pre-cinct, took the chair. He also recognized the Sheriff of the county, Sullivan, the Democratic candidate, whose case was analogous to his own. Lloyd, who was the old Sheriff, and who was the Republican candidate at the last election and claims he was elected by the throwing out of the tunare good enough if strictly enforced, so it was decided to make no change in them.

A number of changes were made in the rules, among which were the following: Rufe 4 was changed so that the conditions referring to maldens shall mean maidens at the time of entry, nuless otherwise specified. Rule 10 was changed to read: "Where no entrance fee is required the declaration must be accompanied by 5 per cent. of first money." Rule 21, relating to change of name, was changed so that no association shall receive the entry of or allow a horse whose name has been changed anywhere to run on its course. Rule 48 was changed so that an owner or trainer must consent to the declaration of the jockey to carry legal overweight. Rule 5 now reads: "Every horse whose jockey has weighed out, and whose number has been put, is a starter and liable for the whole stake." If a horse is excused after weighing out, all book bets on the race are void, and additional time before the race will be granted by the judges in auctions or Paris mutuals. Sets stand, but money bet on an excused horse shall be refunded. Rule 92, section A, relating to penalties, and section C, to beaten and maiden allowances, were stricken out and a new rule adopted in its place, reading: "If an ineligible horse has been entered for the purpose of betting against him, and he finishes first, or if he has been entered for the purpose of laving him disqualified by objections made after the race, all bets shall be declared off." was elected by the throwing out or the tun-nei precinct, refused to surrender the keys of his office and the jail to Suliivan.

Today the habeas corpus cases under the indictment for dynamiting were called up by Judge McHatton, but Lloyd refused to surrender the prisoners to Suliivan, who was directed to produce them in court. Hamilton, the contesting Judge, opened another court and Lloyd brought the prison-ers before him.

The Colorado Convention's Declara tion of Principles. DENVER (Colo.), Nov. 14.- [By the Asso

DENVER (Cold.), Nov. 14.— By the Asso-ciated Press.] The Silver Convention ad-journed this afternoon. The only business done at the meeting in the morning was the adoption of a series of resolution. Over some of them there was considerable wrangling, but finally they were unanimously agreed upon.

This afternoon a permanent organization was formed, which will be known in the future as the "Colorado Silver Association."
Hon. H. A. Tabor was made president and a vice-president was chosen from each county in the State. The preamble preceding the resolutions goes on to state:
"That it is the opinion of the people that the demonetization of silver 16 years ago by this country and foreign powers was the result of a conspiracy of the flew against the many; of the creditor class against the debtor class, of the consumers against the producers, of the time mentioned the period has been marked by constantly-declining prices of staple commodities and of all the products of the farm and they and also by the taring from future as the "Colorado Silver Association. der of Banker Fleischbein of Belleville, Ill., and the robbery of the Gogeble stage. took the stand in his own defense today and made a confession. He admitted that he robbed the Milwaukee and Northern train six months ago, held up the Wisconsin Central train at Cadott, Wis., a month later and waylald the Gogebie stage and shot Banker Fleischbein.

Holzhay said that he had worked on the Coonto River for three years, and then dedictions of evil to the people and to the Nation."

The declarations are in substance that the time has fully come "when a restoration must be made, and that this can only be done by restorling the system of metal money coinage in effect prior to 1878, which in the past has proved so beneficial; that Congress upon assembling should pass an act for the demonetization of si.ver, and for the free and unlimited coinage of the same; that until such time a demand is made for the coinage of $4,000,000, per month, in accordance with the Bland Bill; that the time h s arrived when the United States can lead the way in the matter of free and unlimited coinage, and that by so doing it will increase the prosperity of its people; that the present stringency of the money market, in connection with the low prices for all the products of labor, is convincing evidence that the money volume has not expanded with the increase in population; that the people generally insist upon the enforcement of these last demanda."

to it by Howell.

The Prosecuting Attorney flustrated the BALTIMORE, Nov. 14 .- [By the ated Press. | Prelates, priests and dele-gates to the number of 600 were conveyed in carriages today to various points of in-terest in Baltimore and its environs. At 1 o'clock the party reached St. Mary's Industrial School, and were welcomed by Monsignor McColgan and Brother Alexius, president of the institution. An entertainment was given by the boys. Music was furnished by the industrial school band. At 2 o'clock a banquet was tendered the visitors, and a number of speeches were made, in which the institution and Baltimade, in which the institution and Baltimore, its clergy and its people came in for a large share of commendation.

A reception to the Cardinal and members of the Catholic congress was held at the city Hail at 4 o'clock. About 1500 invitations had been issued. This did not debar any one who presented himself at the City Hail from getting admission and being presented to the Mayor and Cardinal.

COLLIERY DISASTER.

Fifteen Miners in Pennsylvania
Portsville (Pa.), Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) At Middle Creek colliery near Tremint, a blast fired in a breast year terday cut and ignited a "leader," and this fired a large quantity of loose cont
the above named bank, and the stubs disclosed the fact that a number of them had been drawn for considerable sums to the order of various persons. Many blank drafts on western banks were also discovered in his room. this fired a large quantity of loose coal lying in the br. ast and threatened the destruction of the mine. While 15 men were at work this morning extinguishing the more and Potomac Railroad for a few days' flames a mass of coal fell, burying four of their number in the face of the burning The remainder went heroically to work to rescue the bodies of their comrades, which were now threatened with being consumed by fire, and finally rescued them. To their astonishment they found them all alive, but so badly burned and injured that they cannot recover.

JEFF DAVIS VERY ILL.

His Relatives Summoned to His Bedside.

Vicksburg (Miss.). Nov. 14.—|By the Associated Press.] Information was received in this city today that ex-President Jefferson Davis was seriously ill at his Briefield plantation, in Davis Bend, 20 miles below Vicksburg, and that his relatives had been telegraphed for.

Fatal Railway Accident.

JACKSON (Miss.). Nov. 14.—A special train on the Illinois Central branch from Aberdeen, Miss., collided near Canton with a switch engine tod y, resulting in the death of Patrick Redmond, ergineer of the switch engine, Tom Loftus, the switchman, and an unknown negro. Jim Smith, D. Haisey, V. Thomas and several other persons were injured.

Says: "President Harrison and cen. Seweil by the Bengies Point Club. This morning the President went out and killed a fine bag ducks. The President will remain until Saxtra Fe (N. M.), Nov. 14.—Anthony Joseph, New Mexico's Delegate in Congress in an interview says that immediate upon the assembling of Congress in December the proposes to introduce an enabling act for the dmission of New Mexico. It has already been tacitly understood between the Delegates in Congress from the death of Patrick Redmond, ergineer of the admission of these Territories shall be earnestly pushed forward. Joseph added: The most prominent members of Congress are with us, and have pledged themselves. I think New Mexico's chances are exceedingly good."

Proselytes Swear to Obey the Church Against the Government.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] At its session today the American Turf Congress took up the matter of amending the rules. In regard to the licensies and fining of jockeys, the disposal of the fines and the funds for trainers and jockeys, it was finally concluded that the rules are good enough if strictly enforced, so it was decided to make no change in them.

A number of changes were made in the Prayers Offered for the Overthrow the Federal Union Remarkable Testimony at a Hear ing to Determine the Fitness of Mormons to Take Part in Elections.

By relegraph to The Times.

SALT LAKE (Utan), Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] In preparation for the coming municipal election, many applications for naturalization have been made here recently. Objection being made to the admission of persons accepting faith in polygamy and adhering to other Mormon tenets, today was set by the Court to hear the question.

The attorneys for the Liberals asserted that no Mormon who had taken the caths in the Endowment Hopse could be a good citizen, and testimony was ordered regarding the nature of these caths.

John Bond swore he went through the Endowment House in 1868, and was required to take an obligation which compelled him to obey every doctrine of the church, especially in opposition to the United States, under penalty of his life. He was also required to take an oath te avenge the blood of Joseph Smith on this Nation, and to teach this to his children and children's children to the latest generation.

Metric B. Wardell took a similar and children's children to the latest generation.

and children's children took a similar oath about the same time. He said he was told if he revealed any secrets his throat would be cut and his bowels torn out. He saw the death penalty enforced on a man samed Green, a number of years ago, and when some of the members of the band murmured, John W. Young said if they did not sout up they would be served the same way.

sout up they would be served the same obligations, and said he took an oath that the highest allegiance was to the Mormos Church; that polygamy was commanded e God and all must indorse it or be damned. The general teaching of the church was a hostlity to the laws of the land. Cahoo had heard the leaders of the church part pray for the overthrow of the United State Government. It is common for Wilfow Woodruff, the present head of the church to do this.

All witnesses spoke of murders they either seen or heard of in consequence these oaths. The hearing will be continuously.

Coonto River for three years, and then desiring a change west to Portland, Or, for a should country, where he worked in a mill for five months. He also speat eight weeks in riding about the country, and was in the West altogether about eight months. While in Washington Territory, Hoiznay said, he was injured by his horse falling upon hire, and he lay unconscious for some time afterward, and while his health previous to this accident had been good, since then it had been bad. He could not describe just how it affected him, but it affected his whole system, and particularly his head. Ordinarily he felt quite good, but then bad spells would come over him, and would last probably a day, sometimes more. He said that during those spells lie felt strange, but could not describe his feeling. During such spells, his actions and any incident or occurrences taking place at such time were all a blank afterward. He had several of those spells since his capture, and probably had a dozen or more since he was injured. Holzhay said he remembered the day he was arrested and who arrested him. He could not tell why he held up the stage. He did not remember who was in the Gogeble stage. He did not remember who was in the Gogeble stage. He did not remember who was in the Gogeble stage. He did not remember who was in the Gogeble stage. He did not remember seeing either Fleischbein or the driver, and failed to belong to Fleischbein. He claimed that he had never seen Fleischbein's name on the pocketbook until his attention was directed to it by Howell.

The National Reform Party.
CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—The reformers' convention nearly split up in a row this morning, the Greenbackers claiming that the Committee on Resolutions had not given them a fair show. Matters were finally smoothed over, however, and the day was consumed in discussion of various needed reforms. Tonight the convention ended its deliberations. It was decided to form an organization, to be known as the "National Reform Party," and a committee was appointed to formulate an address setting forth its aims. The National Reform Party.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The Freshelt left the city last night by way of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad for a few days' duck-shooting. It is not known exactly where he has gone, but it is supposed to one of the famous duck-hunting grounds in Maryland, in the vicinity of Chesapeake Bay. Private Secretary Hiford said today that he could not tell where the President was because he did not know. The President wanted a few days' uninterrupted recreation, and the only way he could have it was by keeping his movements secret.

"Residents in the neighborhood of Chestnut street, Alameda, are agitating for the erection of a proper depot at that place, which shall surpass the insignificant wooden box of the Southern Pacific Company. Some time ago the residents in the neighborhood of Morton street on the same line subscribed for and are now build-when to eight.

"The question which is varied the residents, to satisfy whose justifiable pride the stations are being erected, is to whom they will belong when completed. The Southern acific has subscribed a moderate $100 toward the Morton-street building, and is getting in return a very neat station building, which can but add to the attractiveness of its lines and the travel over them. At Encinal Park there is no station, and it is the intention of the company to move its wooden box from Morton street to that place, when the new station is finished. As the building of these stations seems to be infectious, the company will soon have a number of pretty little depots all along its line, built on property donated for the purpose and costing the company merely a song.

THE UNITED STATES ARMY.

Col. Langdon, commanding the regiment stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco, was recently interviewed by a San Francisco Call reporter in regard to army affairs. In the course of the interview, he made some interesting remarks concerning the effect of recent army legislation and the character of Uncle Sam's

The Colonel was especially wrathful in referring to the act of Congress which provides that soldiers who contract incurable diseases, or become addicted to debilitating vices, rendering them unfit for service, cannot be discharged. At the Presidio today at least 57 out of the garrison of 600 men are afflicted with such diseases as alcoholism and chronic rheumatism, but they cannot be got rid of. Some musket for years, and many of them spend half their time in the guardhouse for drunkenness. They can retire upon a pension, if they so elect. Apart from the direct evil resulting from the presence of such men in the army, they do much harm by keeping better men away. There is, fortu-nately, no need for the United States to attempt to rival the great European powers in the magnitude of its standing army. Our army is small—some people think a little too small—but, be that as it may, its numerical inferiority makes it all the more desirable that in quality it should be beyond reproach. It should, in fact, be a corps d'elite, not a heterogeneous combination largely sprinkled with bummers, adventurers,

There is a state of suppressed excitement among some of the San Francisco journals which looks as if it open hostilities of the bitterest kind. Like many other newspaper contests at the bay, this quarrel is all on account of that succeient bone of contention, the Southern Pacific Com pany. The ball was started by the Alta California, which re-Chronicle, in an article entitled:

OUT OF ANDER NVILLE

Last night an interested audience at Masonic Hail on South Spring street listened to a thrilling recital by Raiph O. Bates of the experiences of himself and hundreds of other brave soldier boys in Audersonville prison, and the final access of south a number of south and south a number of south and south a number of south a number of south and south a number of south a n solder boys in Audersonville prison, and the final escape of quite a number through the famous tunnel. Mr. Bates's subriquet in those perilous times was "Billy," and he read his description of the escape in clear and ringing tones. The scenes witnessed and horrors experienced by prisoners of war at Andersouville have caused many a heart to throb with sympathy, and the desperate chances which the poor fel ows took to escape from their living death are almost beyond the powers of description. These events have been often described by those who took part in them, but the story of an eye-witness and participant last night brought many a thrill to those who heard him. He began with his arst entrance into the prison and the pittul experiences which befell him and the patriots who suffered there, and painted a graphic picture of the dreadful scenes. His auditors hung breath less upon his words as he pictured the full the efforts to escape and the crowning success, when so many struggled out of bondage through the narrow road to freedom. Mr. Bates had a fascinating theme and he handled it well. The evening passed rapidly and his audience was enthusiastic in its applause at the close.

A few hours after he had finished A few hours after he had finished dressing the cow he was taken suddenly sick and a doctor was called in. After a careful examination the physician pronounced the disease blood poisoning. Everything possible was done to save the old man's life, but he died in great misery. It is believed by some of the neighbors that he cooked and devoured some of the diseased meat, and they are of the opinion that the meat hurried his death. There is considerable feeling in the neighborhood against the butcher who purchased the carcass, and if they become convinced that he took the diseased meat with a knowledge of what he was getting there is hable to be trouble.

There has been considerable work of this kind at various points in the city among the small retail butchers, and it is about time the Health Officer was looking into it.

ASSOCIATION OF THE DEAF. An Organization for Church Purposes and Mutual Benefit.

The deaf mutes in this city formed a society for their mutual benefit, and will hold religious services in the sign language in the guild room of St. Paul's Church, Olive street, next Sunday at 3 p.m., for the first time. The objects of the association, besides the above services, are to help deaf mutes to obtain employment at their trades, for their social and intellectual improvement, visiting them in sickness, and giving advice and information to those who require it. The need of such an association has long been felt by them. The only other society on the Pacific Coast for deaf mutes is at San Francisco, where they meet only twice a month. Thomas Widd, for 15 years principal and founder of the Mackay institution for deaf mutes at Montreal, and for six years a resiin the sign language in the guild room the Mackay institution for deaf mittes at Montreal, and for six years a resident of Los Angeles, has been appointed secretary and missionary, and he will be happy to furnish all information in his power to any one interested in this class. He gives a very sad account of the late bizzard in that region. Five Mexican sheep-herders perished in his neighborhood, the bodies of four having been found. Snow completely covers the ground from Clayton to the Canadian River, a distance of 125 miles. Many Mexican famines are in a destitute condition, and, owing to the heavy snow, are unable to move from their plazes in or der to lay in a supply of food. Mr. Buca thinks other bodies will be recovered as soon as the snow melts, as several men are missing.

After these alterations, the convention received applications from the Brooklyn and Charles for the form required by the league constitution, and were referred to the source in the power of directors, which reported favorably upon them. The clubs were then cleeked members by accimation.

BROOKLYN AND CINCINNATI IN THE LEAGUE.

Von der Ahe Master of the Situa tion in the Association-Important Changes in the League Rules, By Telegrouph to the Times.

NEW YORK, N.v. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] At today's meeting of the National Base-ball League consideration of the constitution was resumed. Section 35, which read, "Releases of payers from contract, or reservation and future contracts. which read, Releases of p-ayers from contracts with players, shall be regulated and governed by the national agreement of professional base-ball clubs, and league legislation made in pursuance thereot," was amended so as to read that, "No player, without the consent of the club with which he is in contract or reservation, can negotiate with any other club for his services; but if said consent is given said player, he may negotiate with any club for his services and receive shoney consideration therefor, which may be accepted by the reseasing club." This action does away with the system of saies, over which there recently has been such wery.

Just at nightfall a rumor crept about among base-ball men in the corridors that Brooklyn and Cincinnati had broken the deadlook in the association contest by withdrawling and joining the league. When President Byrne of Brooklyn and President Stern of Cincinnati were asked if the report was true they admitted that it was. Shortly after 7 o'clock the league convention adjourned for the night. President Young gave out he news of the day's work. The subject of contention during almost the sentential of the contention and the content of the sentential of the day's work. The subject of contention during almost the sentential of the senten the deadlock was settled by the adoption of the tent important change in the constitution was the complete abolition of the classification element. This unatter was treated upon in sections 30, 31 and 32, which were entirely wiped out.

Section 9 of the constitution, which deals with the guarantee fund, was amended as as to make the bond of each club $25,000 instead of $50,000, the same to be paid in annual inst liments of $1000. Section 59 was so ameaded that postponed games can be piayed at any time afterward, but it was decided that two games should not be played in one day without prior consent of two-thirds of all the league clubs.

After these alterations, the convention received applications from the Brooklyn and Cincinnati clubs for membership. They were made in the form required by the Los Angeles, Nov. 14.—[To the Editor of The Times.] Is it true, as rumored that in view of the fact that Gov. Waterman has announced him-self through the San Francisco Exam-iner to be a candida e for nomination for Governor next season, that an early and effective campaign is to be com-menced in Los Angeles, in his behalf? French Copper Gamblers Unloading.

New York, Nov. 14.—London cables to the Metal Exchange today indicated a sudden break of nearly £2 in the foreign copper market. The decline had no effect on the local market. The facts in connection with today's break on the London exchange made it plain to New York people that the French bankers who have held the stock of the French syndicate since its collapse have begun to unload their metal.

Resignations and Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—W. H. Welch of M. Tyland, Deputy Third Auditor of the Treasury, today tendered his resignation. A. D. Shaw of Indiana has been appointed to succeed him. The resignation of Judge Hinch of Indiana, chief of a division in the Comptroller's office, has been accepted, and Frank Swirgert of Logansport, Ind., is named as his successor.

Mr. Buckley of San Francisco is in Los Angeles, and he knows a thing or two about politics, and something will surely come of it. The arrangement as now understood is that Geu. R. H. Chapman, Col. Geo. Butter Griffin, Fred Harkness, R. A. Ling, Sidney Lucy, Canrad Jacoby, T. E. Rowan, Bowless E. Taney and Wm. S. Waters, since the volitical tide is moving, have determ ned on forming a Republic cratic-Waterman club. The relations between the Governor and the new club will be obvious. As the gentlemen are not usually in politics, but are effective workers, it will be something more than a "stuffed club," as the enemy will find. An irresistible set of officers would be: For president, Soldney Lacy; vice-president, Conrad Jacoby, secretary, Wm. S. Waters, treasurer, Bowles Taney. to order, and Judge Enoch Knight officiated as secretary.

The proposed meeting to be held in San Francisco to organize a Pacific Coust chamber of commerce was referred to, and the question of sending delegates to that meeting was considered. It was decided that three delegates should be chosen, and W. U. Masters, J. A. Buchanan and Judge Enoch Knight were duly elected.

The board then adjourned, after which, in an informal way, future work for the board and plans for increased usefulness were considered.

The Charity Organization.

This society should receive the approval and substantial aid of all. The objects are as follows:

The Charity Organization Society seeks: First—The detection of fraud. Second—The adequate relief of the bonest poor and the reclamation of the pauperized poor.

Third—The establishment of various schemes for the encouragement of thirft and self-hep.

Fourth—The suppression of social abuses. This work can be done only by the cooperation of all charitable agencies and benevolent addividuals. With such cooperation being said today; or suppression and complete the fact prevents much being said today; or suppression the set of the most prosperous places in the State, with a railroad that will carry freight to and from the ship's morning we received the facts prevents much being said today; or suppression of social abuses.

Owing to the late hour this morning we received the facts prevents much being said today; but it is due to say that Mr. Mr. Richard Gird has about concluded a business transaction of the highest value to Southern California as well as to Chino. Little does the general public understand the anxious days and nights he has labored in this bebalf and the responsibilities assumed by him; but when he starts to accomplish anything he don't recognize the word fail in the business.

THE 15TH OF NOVEMBER

The most wonderful example of extreme old age on record is that of Thomas Parr, who was born at Winnington, Shropshire, England, in 1483. His father, John Parr, was an agricultural laborer, and Thomas followed the same occupation. He remained a bachelor until 80, when he married his first wife, with whom he lived 32 years, and eight years after her death, at the age of 120, he married a second time. In 1685, when he was past 152 years old, he was visited by the Earl of Arondel, who was greatly struck by the intelligence and venerable demeanor of Thomas Parr. The Earl induced the old man to visit London. The journey was made on a horse-litter, and the old man was overwhelmed with the attentions of multitudes of visitors. It would have been better to have left Parr in his native village, as, partly owing to the fatigue of the journey and the crowds which thronged to see him, and, above all, to the unwonted mode of life he led, the old man ere many months were over fell ill and died. He was buried on November 15, 1685, in Westminster Abbey, where a monument was erected to his memory. Formerly, comers were supposed to a monument was erected to his memory.

Formerly, COMETS were supposed to cause numerous ills as well as benefits to mankind. The celebrated vintage of 1811 and the abundant crops were attributed to the great comet of that year, and the plague of London was thought by many to have arisen through a similar cause. The first man to bring comets within a sphere of physical laws was Edmund Halley. After Framsteed had published his careful observations on the comet of 1680, Sir Isaac Newton was able to determine what kind of a curve it marked out in the heavens, and then Dr. Halley, after investigation, came to the conclusion that the comets of 1531, 1607 and 1682 were one and the same comet, which takes about seventy-six years to make its journey around the sun. After making corrections for afew disturbing causes, he predicted that the comet would again appear late in 1759 or early in 1759. The French mathematician, Lulande, calculated that April, 1759, would be the time of the reappearance, or rather of its perihelion or nearest approach to the sun. The comet was espied December 25, 1758, and passed its perihelion March 13, 1759. This would have been a great triumph for Halley had he been living, and it was agreed to call this body Halley's Comet, which, it was expected, would reappear in 1835. In 1859 Pontecoulant, a French mathematician, fixed upon the 14th of November, 1835, as the probable date. On August 5th of that year the comet was detected at Rome; it was visible to the naked eye in September, attained its greatest brilliancy about the middle of October and passed its perihelion on the 15th of November, within one day of the time calculated by Pontecoulant. It is now settled that the comets of 1378, 1056, 1531, 1607, 1759 and 1885 are only so many successive appearances at intervals of about 76 years of 1378, 1050, 1531, 1607, 1759 and 1835 are only so many successive appearances at intervals of about 76 years apart, and astronomers are agreed that it will appear again in or about the year 1911.

Lovers of opera still enjoy the productions of Johann Christoph von Gluck, the celebrated German composer, who was born in 1714. He studied under Martini in Italy, visited London and Paris, and was patronized by Marie Autoinette. He is regarded in a measure as the founder of dramatic music. Among his productions are the operas of Ariaxerxes, The Fall of the Giants, Aleeste, Orfeo and Iphegenia in Tauris. He died November 15, 1787.

On the 15th of November, 1712, a On the 15th of November, 1712, a singularly ferocious duel was fought in Kensington Gardens, London. The keepers of Hyde Park, on the morning of the day, were alarmed by the clashing of swords, and rushing to the spot whence the sound proceeded, found two noblemen wettering in their blood. These were Lord Mohun, who was already dead, and the Duke of Hamilton, who expired in the course of a few minutes. The seconds, too, Col. Hamilton for the Duke and Gen. Macartney for Lord Mohun, crossed swords and fought with equal rancor. Hamilton was arrested, but Macartney fied to France. The incident threw London into a ferment, and the Tory party denounced the and the Tory party denounced the duel as a murder, committed to wound its party in a vital point. It seems, however, that all the party, principals as well as seconds, were so transported as well as seconds, were so transported by the ferocity of their personal enmity as to neglect all the laws, both of the gladiatorial art and of the duelling code, and to engage each other with the fury of savages or wild beasts. Such were the pleasantries of political warfare which preceded the transference of the crown from the house of Stuart to the house of Hanover and the ancestor of the present
